RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY. -Though the weather yesterday was agreeable, the attendance at the churches was smaller than usual, the summer absenteeism having commenced. Rev. Mr. Giddings preached in the 1st Presbyterian Church in the morning. R:v. Mr. Dice conducted services at the M. E. Church, South, Rev. Mr. Biscoff preached to the German Lutherans at the rooom of the Y. M. C. A. There was no service in the First Presbyterian Church in the afternoon. With these exceptions regular services were conducted in the other churches by the resident clergy. The following is a report of the work done during the day by the Young Men's Christian As-

The Sunday School on St. Asaph street had a small attendance of children, but good order prevailed and the session was an interesting one; there was a full corps of teachers. The King and West street Sabb th School had its full attendance of scholars; teachers are badly wanted for this school; the exercises were excellent in inter-est and result. The Jail services were conducted by an enlarged committee; they report a meeting of unusual interest. The Alms House meeting had a large force of workers on hand and a good congregation; the deepest interest prevailed and the exhortations made were of the most effective character. No meeting or work at the Canal Basin; not one boat lying at this point. The open-air meeting at the corner of Fayette and Cameron streets was more numerously attended than he etofore; the brethren were out in full than he etotore; the brethren were out in full force; we noticed that the younger ones of the association were on hand in goodly numbers, much to their credit; the services at this point were fully sustained, and doubtless were effective; the committee, from the fact of the interest manifested, will hold this meeting next Sunday at the same time and place. The Sunday prayer meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church was one of the best that the Association has ever one of the best that the Association has ever held; the attendance was not so full as usual one party expecting soon to die sent a request for special prayer, and special prayer was asked for the young men of this city, all of which was heartily and faithfully responded to; the speak-ing on this occasion was as practical and well received as the reporter ever listened to. This meeting will be held next Sunday in the First Presbyterian Church.

THE FOURTH AT NOKESVILLE. - A correspondent of the Baltimore American writing from Nokesville, Prince William county, Virginia, gives the following account of the celebration of the Fourth of July at that place. "Not since the late war has there been a Fourth of July celebrated, and it was_determined this year we would have one. To this end the Presbyterian and Methodist Sabbath schools determined to have a Union picnic, and to make it an occasion enjoyable by all. The place selected was the mausion of Mrs. Rube, near this place, which was surrounded by a beautiful grove. All the arrangements, which were suggested by the thoughtful committee, were perfected, and early this morning the crowds began to come in from every quarter. The early part of the day was spent in such amusements as suggested themselves and the meeting and greeting of friends who had not seen each other for many a long day. At 12 o'clock Mr. Tredick, chairman of the commit-all feeling that they had spent a delightful day, and one which was productive of much good.

THE CITY PASSENGER RAILROAD. -At a senger Railway Company, held last week, the Alpheus Brown, Rudolph Bruner, Henry Posey, J. R. Nicklin, W. H. Hullins, and Jacob Studds. It is expected that the road will be in running order by Thursday next. Mr. Charles Brill applied for and purchased on Thursday last the first package of fare tickets. If all of our people who can afford it, would invest one dollar in the company's tickets at four cents each, it would encourage the enterprise. Mr. Henry Strauss has purchased twenty-five dollars worth of tickets, and will keep them on sale at his store-25 tickets for one dollars. We learn that there will be no half fares, but that ail children not over six years, accompanied by a grown person, will be taken free.

THE FOURTH AT ARLINGTON. -The colored people had a Fourth of July celebration at Arlington, which was well attended and well conducted. Several addresses were delivered, one of them by Rev. Fields Cook, of this place, which is spoken of as excellent in tone and style. Among others who spoke were Prof. P. H. Murray, R. S. Laws, R. D. Ruffin, A. W. Harris, and John B. Syphax.

Mr. Murray thought "that the problem of the South to-day was the pacification of the races, and this could not be accomplished by the elevation to places of honor of unrepentant rebels. He warned the colored voters to beware of such men."

All the speakers pledged themselves to work in the coming campaign for the success of the Republican party. Music was furnished by the Arlington band. ROBBERY AND ARRESTS. -The Washington

Chronicle says: - "A man giving his name as John Scott, but who was afterward recognized as Mr. E. A. DeAtley, a drever, from Waterford Va., states that while in an intoxicated condition in the Division on Friday night he was relieved by some unknown parties of his pocket-book containing about six hundred dolars in cash, and checks to the amount of about four hundred dollars, with other valuable papers. A fine gold watch was also missing. The Philistines of the Bay are suspected, and the detectives, who are secretly working up the ters whom they suspect of the robbery, among whom is "Skinny" Dougherty, who is now quartered at the Central Guard-house. The will remain until further facts are developed."

derous public documents, under the frank of OBER'S AMMONIATED members of Congress, lie piled up at many of the postoffices, to the annoyance of the postmasters and the citizens generally. They are of no value, not even for waste paper. The end of such an expensive outrage is at hand, never to be revived, it is hoped.

MR. KILGOUR'S SPEECH. - A correspondent of the Warrenton Index, giving an account of the late commencement at Bethel Academy in Fauquier Co., says:—"The evening's exercises were begun with declamations which were followed by the annual address delivered by Mr. Wm. Kilgour of Alexandria; and here I break right down. The idea of my reporting that address-I shan't attempt it, but only say it was ust such a one as it takes him to make. The adies smiled on him, the male portion looked enraptured-and I, well I held my breath. Why, sirs, it beat the Greeley speech he made here, and I thought that was the best I ever heard, and I now move that he be invited to deliver it every year."

THE Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: The amounts contributed in meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pas- | aid of Pius IX. by the various Catholic churches, in Washington and Alexandria, last Sunday following persons were appointed drivers, viz : were as follows : St. Aloysius' $432, St. Peter's $330, St. Mathew's $180, Immaculate Conception $65, St. Stephen's $60, St. Martin's (colored) $36 50, St. Mary's (Alexandria)

Ex-Empress Eugenie Interviewed. NEW YORK, July 7 .- A letter from Geneva o the World gives a conversation with the late Empress of France. She says that her visit to France is for a political purpose, and it is useless to try to conceal it. She believes there will soon be a general return of the people to order, and said the Piedmont and Government at Rome, the Anti-Christian and Pagan Court at Berlio and the wild communist at Madrid are filled with fear at the awakening of Catholic France. Now that the wretched Thiers is gone all moves, now that McMahon s President who loves France? The future of France, said Eugenie, is ours, and France will lead the reaction against the forces which have seemed to threaten the existence of society and religion throughout Europe. LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. Wildt, borrowed the key of the town clock this morning from Maj. Duffey, the keeper, to show some of his friends the machinery by which the hands are moved, but hardly had the visitors left the steeple before it was observed that the clock had stopped, and upon examination it was discovered that some of those who had inspected it had inserted a block of wood among the wheels and so effectually, for time at least, prevented its running. The obstruction was removed at once and the hours since have been marked with the usual

Some excitement was created at the City Hotel last night, by the strange and violent conduct of a lady who arrived there yesterday from Arkansas, on her way, as she stated, to North Carolina. She stamped down on the floor so violently that she knocked down nearly Stellin, and recently arrived here en route to all the plastering from the ceiling of the room beneath the one she occupied, and asserting that two colored men had followed her all the way from Little Rock for the purpose of killing her, refused to stay in the room assigned her the river. An unsuccessful attempt was made last night to break into and rob the grocery store of Messrs. Avery & Davidson, corner of King and Alfred streets.
